

The leading executive level policy programme for those engaged in the agricultural and land-based sector at a senior level.

Do you possess a strong aspiration to lead within the wider agricultural and associated industries? Are you looking to become a more effective leader?

CIRENCESTER | BRUSSELS | WAGENINGEN | WESTMINSTER

The Royal Agricultural University (RAU) and the Institute of Agricultural Management (IAgrM) have an impressive and long-standing history of delivering a programme designed for individuals with a real desire to implement change.

The only one of its kind, this three-week residential programme is aimed at the more proficient candidate who is already in a management role within their business and is seeking to challenge and empower their leadership and management potential.

The Institute of Agricultural Management (IAgrM) Leadership Programme provides unparalleled access and personal interaction with the most influential sector leaders from production, retail and policy across the entire food and farming industry.

'The course content and organisation involved hit the mark every single day.'

The IAgRM Leadership Development Programme 2023

This master's level programme will develop your understanding of policy making in the UK and Brussels, arming you with a toolkit and network for the next stage of your career trajectory within the agri-food sector.

This intensive programme gives you the opportunity to focus and reflect on:

- UK Industry Leaders & Policies
- Management & Communication Skills
- EU and International Affairs
- Personal Development

As in previous years, relationships made between the delegates of this unique programme will offer a life-long network of opportunities.

'From expression of interest through to selection and attendance, I could never have envisioned how well executed the entire three weeks would be – from the exemplary list of speakers and the diversity of the agenda to the military precision travel arrangements. This programme has enabled me to learn about myself and what kind of leader I would like to be'.
